Nomination and remuneration committee charter

1. Introduction

- 1.1 The Nomination and Remuneration Committee is a committee of the board of directors (Board) of Knosys Limited (Company).
- 1.2 The Board may establish the Nomination and Remuneration Committee under the constitution of the Company.
- 1.3 The Nomination and Remuneration Committee is accountable to the Board for its performance.
- 1.4 The Charter sets out the general rules governing the composition, responsibilities and operation of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee in relation to the Company and its controlled entities (Group). It records how the Committee will undertake its responsibilities.
- 1.5 In establishing the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, it is intended by the Board that the primary function of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee will be as a committee of review and general oversight. It is not intended, unless specifically delegated by the Board in respect of a matter and resources are allocated accordingly, that the Nomination and Remuneration Committee will undertake detailed investigation of matters within its areas of responsibility or any executive function.
- 1.6 The Charter is not intended to be either exhaustive or prescriptive of the responsibilities of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee or that, in the performance by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee of its functions and responsibilities, it is to be read and applied in a literal manner.
- 1.7 Terms defined in the Board Charter have the same meaning when used in this Charter.

2. Objective

The objective of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee is to help the Board achieve its objective of ensuring that the Company:

- (a) has a board of an effective composition, size and commitment to adequately discharge its responsibilities and duties;
- (b) has coherent remuneration policies and practices to attract and retain executives and directors who will create value for shareholders;
- (a) observes those remuneration policies and practices; and
- (b) fairly and responsibly rewards executives having regard to the performance of the Group, the performance of the executives and the general business environment.

3. Nominations and Board composition - responsibilities

The Nomination and Remuneration Committee is responsible for:

- (a) identifying and recommending to the Board nominees for membership of the Board and for the position of the senior executive officer of the Company (i.e. the managing director or, if no person holds that office, the chief executive officer) (which person, the purpose of this Charter, if he or she is the managing director or, if no person holds that office, the chief executive officer, is referred to as the 'CEO');
- (b) ensuring appropriate checks are undertaken before appointing a person, or putting forward to security holders a candidate for election, as a Director;

- (c) ensuring that all material information relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a Director is provided to security holders in any Notice of Meeting containing a resolution to elect or re-elect a Director;
- (d) identifying and assessing the necessary and desirable competencies and characteristics for Board membership and regularly assessing the extent to which those competencies and characteristics are represented on the Board;
- (e) developing and implementing processes to identify and assess necessary and desirable competencies and characteristics for Board members;
- (f) the approval and review of induction and continuing professional development programs and procedures for Directors to ensure that they can effectively discharge their responsibilities. The Company Secretary, under the direction of the Committee, is responsible for facilitating inductions and professional development;
- (g) ensuring that each Director and senior executive is a party to a written agreement with the Company, setting out the terms of that Director's or senior executive's appointment;
- (h) evaluating the performance of the Board, its committees and individual Directors on an annual basis with the assistance, if required, of an independent advisor; and
- (i) ensuring succession plans are in place to maintain an appropriate balance of skills on the Board and reviewing those plans.

4. Remuneration policies and practices

- 4.1 The Nomination and Remuneration Committee will consider and agree with the Board the policies for the remuneration of the Chairman, the CEO and the non-executive directors and, in the case of the CEO's direct reports, the general policies and limits applicable to the determination of their remuneration.
- 4.2 Executive remuneration and incentive policies and practices must be performance based and aligned with the Group's vision, values and overall business objectives.
- 4.3 Executive remuneration and incentive policies and practices must be designed to:
 - (a) motivate the directors and management to pursue the Group's long term growth and success; and
 - (b) demonstrate a clear relationship between the Group's overall performance and the performance of executives.
- 4.4 In considering the remuneration and incentive policies and practices, the Nomination and Remuneration Committee will take into account all factors which it deems necessary. The objective of the policies and practices will be to:
 - (a) provide competitive rewards to attract, motivate and retain highly skilled executives;
 - (b) apply demanding key performance indicators (KPIs), including financial and non-financial measures of performance, to the payment of short and long term incentive;
 - (c) link rewards to the creation of value to shareholders;
 - (d) ensure remuneration agreements are equitable and facilitate the deployment of management resources around the Group; and
 - (e) limit severance payments on termination to pre-established contractual arrangements that do not commit the Group to making unjustified payments in the event of non-performance.

- 4.5 The Nomination and Remuneration Committee will review the ongoing appropriateness and relevance of the remuneration policies and practices.

5. Remuneration - responsibilities

- 5.1 In performing its responsibilities in relation to remuneration, the Nomination and Remuneration Committee must give appropriate consideration to the Group's performance and objectives, employment conditions and remuneration policies, practices and applicable relativities.

- 5.2 The Nomination and Remuneration Committee is responsible for:

- (c) determining if shareholder approval is needed for any change to remuneration of directors;
- (d) reviewing and approving, on the recommendation of the CEO, the general nature, structure (including incentive awards, equity awards and retirement and termination payments), terms of engagement and limits applicable to the remuneration of direct reports of the CEO and, if applicable, other senior executives;
- (e) arranging for the approval of the Board any report on executive remuneration that may be:
- (i) required by the ASX Listing Rules or the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth); or
 - (ii) proposed for inclusion in the annual report,
- and reporting to the Board on those matters;

Executive incentive plans

- (f) reviewing, approving and recommending to the Board for adoption the design of any executive equity based incentive plans and KPIs;
- (g) reviewing, approving and recommending to the Board for adoption the total proposed payments to the CEO under any executive incentive plan;
- (h) reviewing, approving and recommending to the Board for approval the proposed award to the CEO and each executive under the rules of any executive equity based incentive plan;
- (i) reviewing, approving, recommending to the Board for adoption the performance hurdles applicable to any equity based incentive plan;

Non-executive directors

- (j) reviewing the remuneration of non-executive directors for serving on the Board and any committee (both individually and in total);
- (k) recommending to the Board the remuneration and any retirement policies for non-executive directors having regard to market trends and shareholder interests;

Reimbursement of expenses

- (l) generally reviewing the Group's policies and systems for the reimbursement of any expenses incurred by Directors and senior executives of the Group;

Insurance and indemnities

- (m) generally reviewing any insurance or indemnity arrangements for the benefit of Directors and officers; and

Termination Payment

- (n) generally reviewing termination payments for the CEO, any executive director and, if applicable, the CEO's direct reports to ensure that such payments are consistent with Group policies and the rules of any incentive scheme and that any payments made are fair to the individual and the Group.

6. Annual Remuneration Report

- 6.1 The Nomination and Remuneration Committee will approve the annual Remuneration Report and make recommendations to the Board for the inclusion of the Remuneration Report in the Company's annual report. The Remuneration Report will contain information on the Company's remuneration policy, practices, attendance at and frequency of meetings of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee.
- 6.2 The Company Secretary will design, maintain and evaluate policies, procedures, internal controls and verification processes in order to satisfy the objective of safeguarding the integrity of the Group's annual Remuneration Report in accordance with best practice, as determined by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, and to meet provisions of the relevant legislation regarding disclosure of remuneration.
